

SYNCHRONIZED JUMPING- Young ladies ride their horses at Jeremy's Ranch English Riding School in Poway. Left to right: Collyn on Juliet, Andrea on Holly, Danna on Zebedee, Shelley on Oliver, Sheena on Comanche, Tammy on George, Mckenna on Missy and Merrilee on Charlie.

The dancing horses of Poway at Jeremy's Ranch English Riding School

On Memorial Day, horses and children danced around a maypole at Jeremy's Ranch in Poway.

Jeremy's Ranch (established 1990) is a private English riding school for people who want the fun and excitement of riding without the financial responsibility and time commitment of owning their own horse.

The horses (Jeremy is one of them) are calm, co-operative and very versatile. Lessons change weekly and cover a variety of disciplines including jumping, dressage, gymkhana, square dancing and polo.

The goal of the riding school is to foster a love of horses and an interest in every aspect of horsemanship. Students go on trips to local thoroughbred breeding and training farms, equine veterinary clinics and, of course, the Del Mar races and yearling auction.

For more information call Jeremy's Ranch English Riding School in Poway at 679-1168.